DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a method for raising funds by using existing communication means, whereas it has been agreed with a data processing facility or entity that the price of the incoming call charged to the originator of the incoming call consists of a part representing the operational costs of said data processing entity and another part representing an action-specific amount to be forwarded by said data processing entity to a receiver of the call.
- II. Claims 5-7, drawn to a method for raising funds by using communication means of a wireless telephone by establishing through the SMS-mode of a telecommunication device a connection with a selected data processing entity, whereas the simple establishment of said SMS connection at said data processing entity between said originator and said receiver without even adding a single SMS-related character is enough to generate confirmation of a connection.
- III. Claims 8-11 and 12-15, drawn to a method for raising funds using communication means of debit or credit or cash card activated card readers comprising establishing through a terminal of said card reading device a communication with a selected data processing entity such as a financial or related action-specific institution by introducing said debit or credit card ...,

- IV. Claims 16-17, drawn to a method for raising funds by using communication means of a pay phone or similar cash accepting telecommunication linked device comprising the steps of establishing through a terminal of said cash accepting device an operational fixed or wireless telephone....

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II, for example, are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed. Further, the subcombination has separate utility such as establishing through the SMS-mode of a telecommunication device a connection with a selected data processing entity

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and different searches are required and hence, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3622

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
